

NSPCC Fundraising Press Release April 2011

Jeanette Hingley and Karen Watkins from Berry Rowan Consultants in North Somerset will be donning their running shoes and applying deep heat in preparation of the Bristol 10k run on May 15th 2011, but there is a serious note behind the run, as Jeanette is running in support NSPCC 1600 club and Childline.

In February Berry Rowan pledged their support for the South West NSPCC Childline charity which aims to raise the £1600 needed to recruit and train one Childline counsellor. Businesses across the Somerset area attended an event in February in order to pledge their support; all monies raised will help to recruit and train more counsellors and expand the service.

Karen and Jeanette, who run a Recruitment and HR consultancy company in North Somerset, will be fundraising and undertaking a number of events over the next 5 months in the hope of reaching their target of £1600.

“We have always supported local charities”, said Jeanette “but after the recent event in Bridgwater organised by NSPCC and Somerset Chamber, we wanted to pledge our support and raise the much needed money, in order that NSPCC staff can be on hand to answer those calls from children and young adults... at the moment 1 in 3 calls are going unanswered which is a concerning thought”.

Further events from Berry Rowan will include a charity wine tasting event and auction in May, Karen and Jeanette will also be attending a number of local events in the Cheddar Valley and Portishead area during the summer.
